

No Line Around My Thoughts: Susan Watson

Reno City Hall - Metro Gallery

November 30th, 2015 – January 8th, 2016

Reception: Thursday, December 3rd 6:00-8:00 pm

Metro Gallery in City Hall hosts local artist Susan Watson. Watson is a painter that utilizes line, shapes, and color with the objective to elicit feelings, dreams, memories, or stories. No Line Around My Thoughts will be a collection of non-objective style paintings composed through intuition.

"I am constantly listening for an unspoken language that I respond to using a non-objective style of painting. Many describe my work as abstract but I describe it as completely non-objective. I am not trying to abstract a landscape or still life, but rather I use lines, shapes and especially color, to communicate ideas, feelings and emotions. My technique could be called "inner landscapes" and the objective is to illicit feelings, dreams, memories or stories. My thoughts are pushed aside and intuition is given full reign. "– Susan Watson

Watson displays her artwork in solo and group exhibitions throughout the Western region as well as France. She has been awarded "best in show" at the juried exhibition "Sunken Treasures" at the Tahoe Maritime Museum and was the featured artist for the month of February at Artspot Reno.
